

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

VI Sixth Constitutional Convention Media Contact:

Delegate Imani Daniel
Secretary, VI Sixth Constitutional Convention
delegatedaniel@usvicc.org

VI Sixth Constitutional Convention to Hold Plenary Session on April 12th in St. Croix

St. Thomas, U.S. Virgin Islands – April 4, 2025 – The VI Sixth Constitutional Convention will convene for its next plenary session in the St. Croix district. The meeting is open to the public and media, and all are encouraged to attend to witness the critical discussions shaping the future governance of the Virgin Islands. The meeting details are as follows:

- Date: Saturday, April 12, 2025
- Time: 10:00 AM to 3:00 PM
- Location: VI Port Authority, Conference Room
Henry E. Rohlsen Airport Terminal,
Estate Manning Bay, Christiansted, St. Croix, VI 00821

The VI Sixth Constitutional Convention is tasked with drafting a constitution that reflects the needs and aspirations of Virgin Islanders. This plenary session will bring together delegates to deliberate key constitutional administrative matters and discuss agenda items that advance the convention's objectives.

Meeting Highlights Include:

- Public Engagement
- Administrative Updates
- Standing Committee Reports and Next Steps
- Amending Committee Definitions and Responsibilities

The media is invited to attend and cover the event to ensure transparency and community engagement in this historic process. Media outlets are encouraged to share this announcement with the public and help promote awareness of the importance of constitutional development for the Virgin Islands.

Public Participation Encouraged

Community members are urged to attend and engage in the process as we work toward crafting a governance structure that represents and serves the interests of all Virgin Islanders. The convention remains committed to inclusivity, transparency, and meaningful public dialogue in shaping the future of the territory.

For more information, media inquiries, or interview requests, please contact Delegate Secretary Imani Daniel.

About the VI Sixth Constitutional Convention:

The VI Sixth Constitutional Convention (VICC) is a historic, community-driven process dedicated to crafting a forward-looking constitution for the U.S. Virgin Islands. Elected delegates and subject matter experts are committed to transparency, inclusivity, and robust public engagement. Its mission is to ensure that every Virgin Islander's voice is heard as it lays the groundwork for a modern governance framework that reflects the community's diverse needs and aspirations. By fostering open dialogue and advocating for meaningful reforms, the VICC aims to build a resilient, responsive, and democratic future for the territory. ### END ###