VI Sixth Constitutional Convention Announces the First Culture & Heritage Committee Meeting

St. Thomas, U.S. Virgin Islands – April 17, 2025 – The VI Sixth Constitutional Convention (VICC) announces the first meeting for the Standing Committee on Culture & Heritage to conduct an in-depth review and propose revisions to key articles of the proposed Fifth Constitutional Convention draft. These meetings are open to the public and media, and community members are encouraged to attend and engage in the discussions that will shape the future governance of the Virgin Islands.

The Standing Committee on Culture & Heritage is responsible for reviewing and proposing revisions to the following sections:

- Preamble
- Article II – Principles of Government, Section 2 – Symbols of the Virgin Islands
- Article III – Virgin Islander (Definition)
- Article XIV – Culture

VICC Standing Committee on Culture & Heritage's First Public Committee Meeting

The VICC Standing Committee on Culture & Heritage will hold its first meeting for Article deliberation, planning, and accepting public input on the items of jurisdiction. The Committee's Chairwoman, Delegate Alecia M. Wells, will lead the meeting, discussing the Committee's responsibility to review relevant Articles and topics.

The meeting particulars are as follows:

- Date: Thursday, April 24, 2025
- Time: 6 PM – 8 PM
- Location: Virtual Link

Public and Media Engagement Encouraged

The VICC remains committed to transparency and inclusive governance. Members of the public are encouraged to attend and will be allowed five minutes, each, to share their ideas or concerns with the Delegates of the VICC.

For more information, media inquiries, or interview requests, please contact Delegate Imani Daniel at delegatedaniel@usvicc.org.

About the VI Sixth Constitutional Convention

The VICC is tasked with drafting and proposing a constitution that aligns with the aspirations of Virgin Islanders while addressing strategy, governance, and local priorities. Through public engagement and expert consultation, the convention aims to create a sustainable framework for the territory's future.
