

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

VI Sixth Constitutional Convention Media Contact:

Delegate Imani Daniel
Secretary, VI Sixth Constitutional Convention
delegatedaniel@usvicc.org

VI Sixth Constitutional Convention Announces the Third Government Structure Committee Meeting

St. Thomas, U.S. Virgin Islands – April 18, 2025 – The VI Sixth Constitutional Convention (VICC) announces the third meeting for the Standing Committee on Government Structure to conduct an in-depth review and propose revisions to key articles of the proposed Fifth Constitutional Convention draft. These meetings are open to the public and media, and community members are encouraged to attend and engage in the discussions that will shape the future governance of the Virgin Islands.

The Standing Committee on Government Structure is responsible for reviewing and proposing revisions to the following sections:

- Article II – Principles of Government
- Article V – Legislative Branch
- Article VI – Executive Branch
- Article VII – The Judicial Branch
- Article VIII – Local Government
- Article XVIII – Constitutional Amendment
- Article XIX – Transition

VICC Standing Committee on Government Structure's Third Public Committee Meeting

The VICC Standing Committee on Government Structure will hold its third meeting for Article deliberation, planning, and accepting public input on the items of jurisdiction. The Committee's Chairman, Delegate Rupert Ross, Jr., will lead the meeting, discussing the Committee's responsibility to review articles related to government principles and structure. The meeting particulars are as follows:

- Date: Saturday, April 26, 2025
- Time: 10 AM – 3 PM
- Location: UVI, 13D Innovative Research and Strategy Center, St. Thomas, VI (and virtual option)

Public and Media Engagement Encouraged

The VICC remains committed to transparency and inclusive governance. Members of the public are encouraged to attend and will be allowed five minutes, each, to share their ideas or concerns with the Delegates of the VICC.

For more information, media inquiries, or interview requests, please contact Delegate Imani Daniel at delegatedaniel@usvicc.org.

About the VI Sixth Constitutional Convention

The VICC is tasked with drafting and proposing a constitution that aligns with the aspirations of Virgin Islanders while addressing strategy, governance, and local priorities. Through public engagement and expert consultation, the convention aims to create a sustainable framework for the territory's future.

END